February 2010

Spouse in the Spotlight -

Karen Ruthrauff arrived at Moody AFB in December 2007 from RAF Mildenhall, UK. She has been married to TSgt Ruthrauff for 11 years. Together they have two children, both in elementary school. Karen has been the Key Spouse for the 23rd Communications Squadron for one year. Last summer Karen took the Sit 'n' Knit class at the Moody Library. She is looking for a Quilt of Valor group to join. So far at Moody AFB Karen has used many different services offered to the family, such as Family Skate Night at the Youth Center, Swimming Lessons and Golf Camp for the kids during the summer, the Reading Program at the Library, and VBS at the Chapel. Karen has recently volunteered at the Thrift Store and has made many wonderful new friends.

Special Wishes for Birthday and Anniversaries -

Best wishes for all the Birthdays and Anniversaries in this month.

Koppen News -

The Airman Cookie Drive held in December by our Club gave our 648 DOZEN Cookies. Major contributors were: The Woodsmen of the World, Valwood Prep School, Ray City Methodist and Baptist churches, and Fresh Beginnings Bakery. Our largest individual contributors were the team of Desiree Brewer and Sarah Huffman. We also had enough cookies to help our at the Deployed Spouse Holiday Dinner.

The Bunco group called the BUNCO BABES will set up the meetings at the next General Membership Meeting. Anyone interested please see Carrie Koppen at the meeting.
